PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

University's progress against SDG16: Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions

The University's contribution to just and accountable institutions rests on its internal governance. It has an Anti-Ragging Committee constituted under the UGC Regulations, 2009, an Internal Complaints Committee under the POSH Act, 2013, a student grievance-redressal cell for academic and administrative complaints, and a statutory mandatory-disclosure publication that the IQAC keeps up to date.

Incoming students submit anti-ragging affidavits and are briefed on the committee's role at induction, and the grievance-redressal cell works through a defined resolution pathway.

The Anti-Ragging Committee constitution and affidavit records, the grievance-redressal cell case records and the mandatory-disclosure publication are attached.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

- ✓ Anti-Ragging Committee constitution and affidavit records
- ✓ Student grievance-redressal cell case records
- ✓ Mandatory-disclosure publication (cross-referenced with the ICC documents under SDG 5)
